NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Henry T. Blanke is a reference librarian at Marymount Manhattan College in New York City.

Karen Gisonny is a reference librarian in the General Reference Division of New York Public Library's main research library.

Library and Information Workers Organization (LIWO) was founded on July 14, 1990, in Durban, South Africa. It is the only librarians group in South Africa committed to the anti-apartheid movement.

Rosalee McReynolds is serials librarian at Loyola University in New Orleans.

Christopher Merrett is Deputy University Librarian at the University of Natal in Pietermaritzburg, South Africa and co-founder of LIWO.

Palestine Human Rights Information Center is an independent, non-governmental Palestinian organization which monitors and documents human rights issues.

Joseph Reilly is PLG's liaison with the African National Congress.

Mark Rosenzweig is a reference librarian in the History and Social Science Collection of the Mid-Manhattan Branch, New York Public Library and co-founder of PLG.

Herbert I. Schiller is professor of communications at the University of California, San Diego and author of several books including Culture Inc.: The corporate takeover of American public expression.